THIRD PARTY MEN WIN

Birth and Christening of the New People's Party.

EVERYBODY INVITED TO AFFILIATE

And Boip Down the Two Great Exteting Political Organizations Full Partic Euchusiasia.

CINCINNATI, May 21.-"The People's Party of the United States of America" was born and christened Wednesday afternoon. The great convention representing the farmers and workingmen of the United States has completed its work, the result being the certainty that Mr. Cleveland and Mr. Blaine, or whoever may bear the standards in 1892, will have to fight against a candidate representing the industrial organizations of the country. Who this candidate will be cannot be guessed at, but it is understood that Senator Peffer, Congressman Simpson, Gen. Weaver and Ignatius Donnelly all have lightning

On reassembling in the afternoon the report of the committee on plat-form was presented. It is as follows: "I. That in view of the great social, industrial and economical revolution now damning upon the stylized world and the new and fiving issues confronting the American people we believe that the time has arrived for a crystalization of the political relorm forces of our country and the formation of what should be known as the People's Party of the United States of America."

country and the formation of what should be known as the People's Party of the United States of America."

'4. That we most heartily indorse the demands of the pistforms as adopted at St. Louis, Mo., in 1884. Ocala, Pla, in 1884 and Omaha, Neb., in 1894, by industrial organizations there represented, summarized as follows:

'(a) The right to make and assee money is a sovereign power to be maintained by the people for the common benefit, hence we demand the abolition of national banks as banks of issue, and as a substitute for national bank notes we demand that agait tender treasury notes be issued in sufficient volume to transact the business of the country on a cash basis, without damage or special advantage to any class or calling, such notes to be legal tender payment of all debts, public and private, and such notes, when demanded by the people, shall be loaned to them at not more than 2 per cent, per samum upon non-perishable products, as indicated in the subtreasury plan, and also upon real estate, with proper limitation upon the quantity of fand and amount of money.

"(b) We demand the passage of laws prohibit-age of silver.

"(c) We demand the passage of laws prohibiting allen ownership of land, and that congress take presupt action to devise some plan to obtain all lands new owned by allen and foreign syndicates, and that all lands held by railroads and other corporations in excess of such as actually used and needed by them be reciaimed by the government and held for actual settlers

'(d) Believing in the doctrine of equal rights to all and special privilege to none, we demand that taxuation—national, state or municipal— shall not be used to build up one interest or class at the expense of another. "(e) We domain that all revenues—national.

state or county—shall be limited to the neces-sary expenses of the government economically d honestly administered.

(f) We demand a just and equitable system of graduated tax on income.

(g) We demand the most rigid, honest and just national control and supervision of the means of public communication and transportation, and if this control and supervision does not remove the abuses new existing we de-mand the government ownership of such means of communication and transportation.

"(h) We domand the election of president, vice president and United States senators by a direct vote of the people.

"I That we arge the united action of all progressive organizations in attending the confer-ence called for Fobruary 22, 1892, by six of the leading reform organizations.

That a national contral committee be appointed by the conference, to be composed of a chairman to be elected by this body and of three members from each state represented, to be named by each state delegation.

5. That this contral committee shall represent this body, attend the national conference that and all other refers overshirations, there that and all other reform organizations there assembled. If no satisfactory arrangement assembled. If no satisfactory arrangement can be effected this committee shall call a national convention not later than June 1, 192, for the purpose of nominating candidates for president and vice president.

"It has the members of the central committee of each state where there is no independent political organization conduct an active system of political agitation in their respect-

Additional resolutions were carried

as follows:

"Resolved, That the question of universal sudrage be recommended to the favorable con-sideration of the various states and territories. "Resolved, That while the party in power in "Resolved, That while the party in power is 1889 pledged the faith of the nation to pay a debt in coin that had been contracted on a depreciated currency basis and payable in currency, thus adding nearly $1,000,000,000 to the burdens of the people, which meant gold for the bondholders and depreciated currency for the soldiers and holding that the men who imperited their lives to save the life of a nation should have been paid in money as good as that paid to the teen paid in money as good as that paid to the fondholder; we demand the issue of legal tender treasury notes in sufficient amount to make the may of the soldiers equal to par with coin, or such other legislation as shall do equal and exact justice to the union soldiers of this

"Resolved, That this conference condemns in unmeasured terms the action of the directors of the World's Columbian exposition on May 19 in refusing the minimum rate of wages asked for by the labor organizations of Chicago.

"Resolved, That the attorney general of the United States about make immediate provision to submit the act of March 2, 1889, provisions for the opening of Okiahoma to home vision to saturate the set of march a, look providing for the opening of Oklahoma to home-stead settlement, to the United States su-preme court, so that the expensive and dilatory legislation now pending there be ended."

Additional resolutions not a part of the platform were presented. recommended favorable consideration of universal suffrage, demanded treasury notes equivolent to coin to pay soldiers, favored eight hours a day, and condemned the action of the world's fair commission with reference to

Amid a perfect exclone of enthusiasm delegate moved the adoption of the platform as read. The convention went wild and the delegates mounted tables and chairs, shouting and yelling like Comanches. A portion of the convention in thunderous chorus sung to the tune of "Good-By, My Lover, Good-By," the words "Good-by, old parties, good-by," and then the doxology. Several delegates urged the adoption of the report, one suggesting that it be by a

The platform proper, exclusive of the resolutions, was finally adopted by a eiging rote.

At this stage the convention was lib He better than a howling mob, and in the midst of the confusion G. M. Miller. of California, came to the front on the prohibition question, which had been ignored in the pintform and resolupoints of order were ineffectual. The resolution offered by him was brief but to the point. It said:

"Remained. That we favor the abolition of the

The prohibition amendment was tipple and plane were destroyed, step as n whelming is defeated. The resolutions were then adopted with only three dissenting votes.

A resolution against trusts was choked off by a point of order raised by Schilling, of Wisconsia, that all resolutions should be referred to the committee on resolutions without being read. Then the convention got down to business again and the matter of choosing a cational committee was

The roll of states was called for members of the national committee, the convention adopting the innovation of appointing three infinbers from each state instead of one mumber as the old parties have. The Alliance Congressman J. G. Otis, of Kansas, nominated H. E. Taubeneck, of Illinols, as chairman of the national executive commit-There was a great outburst of theers when Taubeneck's name was mentioned Taubeneck was chosen by acclamation. Loud calls for Taubeneck finally brought that gentleman to the rostrum, where he made a brief but manly and modest speech, thacking the delegates. He said: "Gentlemen, you see before you all that is left of the relebrated independent party in the Illinois logislature, so often called the 'Big Three.'" He added that, while he sincerely appreciated the honor the convention had conferred upon him, he scarcely felt equal to doing the position of national chairman justice, but would do the best he could. A few moments of confused preparation for adjournment sine die ensued, then the chairman's gavel fell, and the first convention of the people's party of the United States had passed into history.

After the adjournment of the people's party convention Wednesday evening 100 delegates from Kentucky assembled and nominated a full state ticket on a platform in line with the declaration of principles of the national

During the morning there were many consultations among delegates over the platform adopted Wednesday, the most conspicuous, perhaps, of which was that of the nationalists. They held a meeting and talked the matter over after scanning the platform at their leisure. By way of a formal expres-sion of their views they adopted the following resolutions:

following resolutions:

"Resolved, That the nationalist delegates attending the national usion conference believe that the spirit animating and entertained by the delegates in general was the crystallization of the reform elements of the country and therefore a success. And as nationalista, recognizing organization of effort as a fundamental principle of nationalism we heartily indures the formation of the people's party of the United States of America, pledge ourselves to render our best efforts to advance its upbuilding and hope for a spirit of enthusiasm besting and hope for a spirit of enthusiasm befit-

The national executive committee held a meeting and filled the vacancies which had been left in its organization. Robert Schilling, of Wisconsin, and M. C. Rankin, of Indiana, were unanimously elected secretary and treasurer respectively.

THE WESTERN CONGRESS. Resolutions Offered in the Conference at Denver.

DENVER, Col., May 21 .- One question has been settled in the western congress. The chairman has been elected. Mr. A. C. Ferry, of Utah, was selected chairman after a warm contest. His selection was greeted with boisterous cheers. The majority report of the committee on permanent organization recommended for presiding flicer Gov. Anthony, of Kansas. His name was received with cheers. The minority reported that they must have a free-coinage man. Gov. Anthony was declared by his own confession to be opposed to free coinage. The report ommended A. C. Ferry, of Utah, for presiding officer. The minorty report was adopted.

Resolutions were offered favoring the Hennepin canal, the Pan-American steamship line, Mississippi river improvements, demanding lower rates of transportation to the east, and calling for the selection of an inter-state commerce commission from the territory west of the Mississippi.

J. F. Stanton, of Wyoming, appealed for the assistance of Colorado in reclaiming the wastes of his state. He deplored the animosity that was rapidly arising and spreading in the east and west. The north and south, he said, had fought and settled their differences, and he predicted a time when the west would assert itself and resent the domineering of the east. Blood has been shed in our history, and the next war, of greater bitterness than was ever experienced in the national history, would be between the west and the east. The speaker advocated state control.

Many Persons Killed and Several Badly Gust of Burras Details of the Great Disaster.

Mexico Mo., May 21 .- A terrific torado passed 3 miles northeast of this place at 3 o'clock Wednesday afteron, in the vicinity of Bean creek. So far as heard from fifteen houses in the vicinity of that place were destroyed about ten or twelve persons killed, an equal number fatally injured and large numbers badly hurt.

At the house of a farmer named Duffy John Doerger aw: family were living James Doerger, aged 16, was killed out right Lizzie Doerger was fatally hurt and died in a few minutes. Her sixull was crushed and a large piece of timber penetrated her side. Mrs. Doerger was crushed to death by falling timbers and Mr. Deerger was fatally injured. The house was entirely swept away. Nothing has been heard of Mr. Duffy, and it is supposed that his body was carried away by the cyclone. The Duffy barn was blown down and two borses were killed.

At the bouse of William Stranberg William Yostranger and family were visiting. The house was swept bodily away. William Yostranger was killed, his wife was badly injured and his little girl was fatally hurt. William Stranberg was also fatally injured.

At the house of Ed Norris Gertrude Fletcher, a daughter of R. S. Fletcher, was instantly killed. E. B. Norris was fatally injured, Caleb Norris was badla hurt and his wife seriously so. Willie Fletcher and his sister Kate were instantl, killed and their bodies terribly mangled. At the same place Mrs. Emily Seal, widow, aged 60 years, was fatally hurt and Mrs. Norris, the mother of E. B. Norris, was killed. F. S. Norris was badly hurt.

The house of Valentine Erdle caught fire during the first gale and was com-pletely destroyed. The inmates had vacated the house and nobody was hurt. The house of T. B. Hall was blown down, but the family escaped. A horse standing in the road at that place was picked up by the wind, car-ried half a mile and dashed to the earth.

Thomas Werkman's house was swept away. The house of Boston Kunkle was swept away. Mr. Kunkle was picked up and thrown against a wagon and instantly killed. His orchard rooted completely up and trees carried several hun-WAS dred yards and scattered over the country. A farmer by the name of Rogers was killed and several others whose names could not be learned. Fences were blown down and the wheat fields are as flat is if mowed in harvest time. A farmer named Crane was caught in the storm in his wagon and literally torn to pieces.

Joseph Kendall's house and barn were blown down and Kendall killed. He had just left the house and gone to the barn as the barn was lifted up. The barn was scattered all over the fields. James Dillard's house was blown down, and a mowing machine was it erally torn to shreds. A large iron roller weighing 1,000 pounds was taken up and broken to pieces. A calf was taken up and carried over a quarter of a mile. Several horses were killed outright. Twenty-five chickens were plucked clean of feathers, and the spokes of wagon wheels were twisted and broken.

The eyelone passed on to the east, Rush Hill, I mile north, carrying destruction everywhere. There is no doubt that great destruction of property and life has occurred further east. Great trees were takenup by the root and broken off. The width of the cyclone was about 300 yards, and so far as heard from about 12 miles long. The loss will be over $50,000.

AT OTHER POINTS. CENTRALIA, Mo., May 21 .- A funnel-shaped cyclone, one-half mile wide, passed a mile north of this place Wednesday evening. By it a number of dwellings were totally destroyed and many persons injured, some fatally. Barr and fences were swept away. ans, hogs and stock killed in large numbers. A horse belonging to Joseph Tucker was carried a quarter of a mile and blown over his esidence. John F. Harrison and family of a wife and eight children were more or less injured. One child 10 years of age was carried a half mile, and, when found, a stick had been driven through the left arm. A child 5 years old had its right leg broken in three places. Mrs. Harrison, while seriously hurt, is not considered in danger. Drs. Wallace, Head and McAllister, attending surgeons, returning from the scene of the disaster, report many persons dangerously injured.

Mr. Harrison, besides injuries to his family, will have a loss of $4,000 in stock and buildings. A Mrs. Richardson is seriously hurt, and H. C. Hunt, of Centralia, is reported fatally injured. Chickens, geese turkeys were found half-picked and strewn along the path of the storm. Serious damage was done to many houses near the storm's path-Many flues and roofs were demolished. Hallstones fell in some places as large as hens' eggs.

CRESTON, Ia., May 21 .- A small cyclone passed from west to east about 4 miles south of this city Wednesday morning, unroofing houses and barns and destroying shade trees and fences. Many unroofed buildings were flooded with water during the heavy rainstorm that followed, but no fatalities have been reported.

Sr. Louis, May 21.-A special from Morely, Mo., says: A most destructive wind, rain and hallstorm passed over this place Wednesday. Hallstones as large as ergs fell, completely demolishing crops of every description. The wind blew a perfect tornado. The rate fell in such quantities as to completely inundate fields, drowning small stock. During the storm, which lasted about an hour, the darkness was appalling. It is believed the damage in this vicinity will reach $300,000. Fortunately no lives were lost. All telegraph wires were torn down.

BLOOMINGTON, IIL, May 21 .- At 2 p. m. Wednesday a eyclone wrecked the telegraph lines of the Chicago & Alton and also these of the Wabash at Centrajia No. At 5 p. m. another cyclone swept across the Chicago & Alton at Laddoniu, again completely cutting off communication. 24 both points great damage was done to houses, barns and trees, and at Laddenia at least many people were injured and some are reported killed. Owing to prostration of the wire further particulars are not ob-BESTON, Ill. May 21 -A hail and windstorm passed over this place Wednesday afternoon, doing thousands of dollars' worth of damage. The hail was the heaviest ever known here From reports so far received the wheat and strawberry crops, which a few hours ago were worth thousands of dollars, are utterly ruined. Peaches will yield one-third of a crop and the apples are one-half destroyed. Other crops are badly damaged, but to what extent cannot be told as yet. If the damage is as heavy in the surrounding country as near this place the loss to this county alone will reach $500,000.

SWEPT AWAY BY A TORRENT. The Rising Waters in a Ravine Carry Two Families Down Stream

WICHITA, Kan., May 21.-Word has just reached here of a terrible cloud burst with fatal results in Comanche county Tuesday. Joseph and Charley Sherman, with their families, oc-cupied claims south of Protection, their cabins being pitched on the side of a ravine. The storm came on at night, the ravine became bank full of raging waters, and the cabin with its living freight was caught up and carried away. Two of the children were drowned, and the entire party would probably have suffered a similar fate had it not been for the friendly branches of some bushes, which occupied a little island in the stream, and to which the survivors clung until help reached them in the morning. They had been carried 4 miles from their home and were in the water ten hours.
